Defeats Bill Increasing Army Engineer Corps.

RECALLS SABINE CANAL PLAN

Finds Fortunate Opportunity for Re-Movement to Supplant Newell with Proclamation of Abraham Lincoln.

A promising plan of the administration for increasing the Engineer Corps thirds of the membership present. The of the army and at the same time Republicans forced a vote on the measmaking possible the detailing of an Democrats. army engineer on the retired list as director of the Reclamation Service to succeed Frederick H. Newell, was killed in the Senate yesterday by a determined filibuster led by Senator Bailey, of Texas.

It had been planned to make Brig. Gen. William L. Marshall, who recently retired as chief of engineers, the chief of the Reclamation Service. The supporters of Director Newell, friendly to Gifford Pinchot in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy, who, it is said, has been marked for "decapitation" by Secretary Ballinger, nad however, been active in his behalf. Most of them are insurgent Republicans.

Senator Bailey's opposition to increasing the number and the duties of army engineers dates back to the killing of the plan for the Sabine Canal ment to the river and harbor bill in it is thought, will prove satisfactory, and Texas, which appeared as an amendteriously in conference.
